

BANDIT SHOOTS EXPRESS MESSENGER

CONGRESS OPENS IN SHORT SESSION

WOUNDED BY BOLD BANDIT.

Thief Shoots Messenger and Rifles the Strong Box.

LOS ANGELES December 5.—The express car on Santa Fe Overland passenger train No. 1 westbound was entered by an unknown bandit this morning some time between 2 and 4 o'clock. Wells Fargo & Co. Express Messenger Ewan O. Roberts was shot twice and fatally wounded and the way safe rifled of its contents. The robber then leaped from the car while the train was running full speed and escaped.

The robbery occurred somewhere between Needles and Daguerre but was not discovered until the train reached the latter place. Conductor Hawes opened the door of the express car at Daguerre and found Messenger Roberts lying on the floor of the car in a semi-conscious condition and the contents of the rifled safe scattered about the car.

Roberts was so seriously wounded that he was unable to tell how the robbery occurred excepting to say that he had discovered some one on the blind baggage shot in the train. He then opened the door and the man whom he took to be a negro spring inside and before he messenger could draw his revolver opened fire shooting and wounding him twice.

One of the bullets struck Roberts in the left breast passing through his body the other striking him in the right side. Roberts fell to the floor and the robber immediately went to the open way and took what he wanted of the contents. He then opened the door and let the messenger out. He badly hurt that he was unable to make an outcry.

The amount of money and valuable secured is not known at this time. Messenger Roberts was brought to this city on board the train which arrived shortly after noon today.

MONEY TAKEN

The money safe contained envelopes holding money and the keys which were being sent to the general office. Station agents along the line. Santa Fe officials here declined to make any statement regarding the amount of money that was taken. It is believed that the bandit took a number of suitcases but that it was not large.

An examination of the express messenger's books will be necessary to show how much is missing. It is believed by some that the amount taken will prove to be considerable. The train was nearing this end of the division and the messenger must have taken on a large number of suitcases from the agents at stations through which the train had passed.

Messenger Roberts was a resident of Los Angeles. He is married and lives here with his wife but had no children. He was one of the oldest and most trusted messengers of the Wells Fargo Company.

FORCED BOLT

The bolt on the door at the end of the express car was broken showing that the robber had used force in gaining an entrance.

The interior of the car indicated that the messenger had made a game resistance and grappled with the robber before being overpowered and finally shot by him. The bandit is believed to be one of a number of colored tramps who have been seen around Daguerre since the construction work of the Salt Lake road reached that place.

TRAMP ARRESTED.

Word was received at the local Wells Fargo office this afternoon that a colored tramp was under arrest at Bartlett, who is believed to be the man who committed the robbery. Assistant Superintendent Prichard of Wells Fargo stated that the amount taken

CONGRESS AGAIN IN SESSION.

Proceedings Attract Large Crowd to the Capitol.

WASHINGTON December 5.—The last session of the Fifty-eighth Congress was called together at noon today. Crowds of sight-seers thronged the corridors and crowded into the galleries to witness the formal proceedings. From the lithurgy which has characterized Washington since early in the spring the city awakened to a new era and heralded with apparent joy the day which opens both the official and social seasons.

Many newly elected members were at the capitol although they will not enter office until after March. A particularly sad feature of the reassembling was the absence of many faces known old in the service of the country.

Rarely in the memory of the old guard has the opening day been made so gala an occasion. The galleries rather than the floor proved the center of attraction for those upon whom of handsomely gowned women looked down upon the statesmen who grouped about the chambers or strolled in and out of the cloakrooms to exchange greetings with old friends and receive those of new ones.

Members of both bodies were flooded with remembrances in the form of floral pieces and the chambers presented an appearance which they never knew on any other occasion. Baskets and clusters of flowers covered the desks. Though rain and sleet fell during the entire morning these discomforts were insufficient to mar the success of the event.

The Senate after the usual formalities was adjourned out of respect for the late Senators Hoar of Massachusetts and Quay of Pennsylvania.

In the House pending the annual message of the President nothing beyond the merest routine was accomplished.

There will be the short session of the Fifty-eighth Congress and a notably interesting one for with the inauguration of President Roosevelt the session will go out in a blaze of glory. Only once in four years does Congress have an opportunity to wind up its affairs under the historic conditions which will prevail next March.

WANTS TO KNOW ABOUT ELECTION

WASHINGTON Dec 5.—Representative E. C. Cochran of New York introduced a bill providing for the appointment of a special committee to inquire into and ascertain the amounts of money expended by both parties at all elections for Presidential Electors from 1820 to 1904 inclusive.

SUITS OF CLOTHES STOLEN

H. Glass of 1016 Clay street reports that his room was entered yesterday and a suit of clothes stolen.

From the safe was only a few hundred dollars. The principal treasure safe was locked and the robber was unable to force an entrance. Messenger Roberts is at the Sisters Hospital in this city, and is expected to live but a short time. Examination by the surgeons proved that he had been shot but once, the bullet striking him in the breast and passing entirely through his body.

FORMER OFFICIAL IS DEAD.

Ex-Postmaster-General Tyner Has Passed Away.

WASHINGTON, December 5.—Former Postmaster-General Tyner died at 9 35 o'clock this morning.

Mr. Tyner was Postmaster-General during President Grant's administration. His last official duty was as assistant Attorney-General for the Post-office Department from which office he was removed last year and afterwards indicted, together with his nephew, Harrison J. Barrett on a charge of conspiracy in connection with the use of the mails for certain alleged get-rich-quick concerns. On this charge he was acquitted by a jury.

He had been in ill health for a number of years. He was born in Indiana in 1826.

YOUNG WEBER IS INDICTED

AUBURN Dec 5.—The Grand Jury today brought in an indictment against Adolph Weber for the murder of his father, Julius Weber.

ARRESTED FOR THEFT.

Chief of Police Hodgkins yesterday arrested Ellis Sandwig on a charge of having stolen a bicycle from Santa Clara. The young man was attempting to dispose of the wheel to Hugo Mueller, a dealer on San Pablo avenue.

ADOLPH WEBER IN COURT.

His Attorney Will Try to Have Case Dismissed.

AUBURN Dec 5.—Adolph Weber appeared in the Superior court this morning to plead before Judge Prewitt in the case of the murder of his father which is charged against him. During the inquiry and the preliminary examination his face had very little color but on the two last occasions when he appeared in court there has been considerable color in his countenance. He seems to be in fairly good health and is all to eat as well as usual.

When the court asked if he was ready to plead a guilty verdict he said that he was not ready to plead guilty and that he desired to make a motion to set aside the information on statutory grounds but could not do so until he had examined the entire transcript. He thought it would save time and labor to the court in examining the transcript to continue the pleading until next Monday.

Di. Atty. Gen. Robinson said no time could be lost as the order of the Justice Court holding the prisoner to answer was conclusive in this court. The transcript was not material at this time. Mr. Tyner said he would ground his motion on the facts that the transcript given to proof of venue was not that of Adolph Weber was dead that the shot was fired in Placer county or that she died in Placer county and other points on which he was satisfied. He said that the fact of the just ces holding the accused answer was conclusive as to the regularity of the proceedings. He cited the case of the people against Gosling where the corpus delicti was not given. District Attorney Robinson said there was nothing in the contention of counsel either way.

The records show that it was regular and the information filed takes the place of the old form of indictment. He believed there was nothing to be gained by delay and if he could not allow the matter to go over until this afternoon he could present authorities to sustain his position.

Judge Prewitt said the time of decisions heretofore held by him did not quite coincide with the position of either counsel. He could open the examining magistrate's findings as a matter of law and if there was a total lack of evidence showing an irregularity in the Justice Court here was no need of delay to hear argument. If the defense would present the transcript he could go ahead.

Mr. Tyner said he could not show what he desired without calling a number of witnesses unless he could examine the transcript as his notes were not full enough to depend on. Attorney Hamilton said the reporter had the transcript almost ready and it could be taken up tomorrow morning. Mr. Robinson said there was ample testimony regarding the shooting that Mary Weber was alive at 5 p. m. that the body was found in the burning building within a few hours afterwards and that the building was in Auburn. The court then granted a continuance until 10 a. m. tomorrow.

SILL'S HEARING IS SET.

POLICEMAN WILL BE TRIED WEDNESDAY BEFORE COMMISSIONERS.

President McElroy of the Board of Police and Fire Commissioners has called a special meeting for next Wednesday to consider the charges which have been preferred against Policeman Sill.

He is accused of having entered stores and taken articles. His hearing has been set twice previously. On each occasion the matter was postponed because of the absence of Commissioner Turner.

Secretary Fawcett of the board will at that time make his report on the result of the examination of the twenty seven candidates for positions as policemen. Take Piso's Cure for Consumption for Coughs and Colds. By all druggists. 25c.

Chief of Police Hodgkins received a wonderfully misspelled letter from a private detective of Chicago this morning stating that he had P. David Kiniry located and that he would like to know about the reward of $1250 for the capture of the murderer.

The detective signs himself as William Henson and gives his address as 511 South State street. A portion of the misspelled missive is as follows:

Dear Sir—I now write you a few lines to let you know that the man that murdered that policeman in a year ago was P. David Kiniry. Let me now as soon as you can about the reward my man is getting nervous and may lit out at any time.

Chief Hodgkins sent a reply stating that Kiniry is being cared for in the City Prison at the present time.

Murray and Special Policeman William Spague were partaking of a light lunch in the hotel dining room just before the side door which opens off the entrance from the court on the west side of the hotel. Going to see what the disturbance was, Murray found the door wide open. He stepped into the covered entrance way leading to the yard when he heard the report of a revolver and at the same instant felt a stinging in his left arm.

Murray drew his pistol and commenced firing toward a pile of boxes in the yard where he supposed the assailant was. He fired five shots and the assailant fled. Murray then went to the side door and found it open. He went to the side door and found it open. He went to the side door and found it open.

HURT IN SIX-DAY CONTEST.

Bicycle Riders Collide and One Has to Retire.

NEW YORK, December 5—The first serious accident in the six-day bicycle race at Madison Square Garden occurred early to-day when Patrick Keegan, the Lowell Mass. boy, was so badly hurt that he was forced to leave the track.

While the men were engaged in a heart-breaking sprinting match Rockowitz suddenly went down, and Agraz, of the Australian-American team who was following close behind, crashed into him.

Just as both riders started to slide down the embankment Keegan came around at terrific speed.

His wheel struck Rockowitz and Agraz with terrible force. Keegan struck on his face on the board track. He was a pitiable sight. His face was covered with blood which flowed from his nose and a deep cut across his forehead and his nose was broken.

At 8 a. m. the sixteen teams on the track were tied with 176 miles even to the credit of Gougoltz and Breton the French riders had a lead of a few yards at that point.

If you have anything to do with medicine at all, I can assure you know what you are taking.

On local druggist Mr. Parker of the Owl Drug Co. says this is a statement in favor of their valuable cod liver oil preparation, Vinol. It is not a mere candy and anything in medicine is plainly printed on the bottle.

"Vinol contains in a highly concentrated form all of the most potent elements of cod liver oil actually taken from fresh cod livers but without a drop of oil or grease to mar the stomach. This is the reason that Vinol accomplishes such wonderful results in curing chronic coughs, colds, bronchitis and lung troubles and there is nothing known to medicine that will so quickly build up the run-down, overworked, tired and debilitated or give strength and renewed vitality to the aged as Vinol."

Mrs. Martha Fraser of Portland, Me., writes: "I was all run down from overwork and had a chronic cough for years. I had tried so many remedies without help. I had lost all faith in medicine and was discouraged. My daughter bought me a bottle of Vinol. It simply worked wonders for me. It cured my cough and brought back health and strength and I am better than I have been for years. I cannot say enough in praise of this wonderful cod liver oil preparation."

We can only ask every one in Oakland who needs such a medicine to try Vinol on our guarantee to return their money if they don't think it did them any good. That is fair, is it not?—you can't lose on such a proposition. The Owl Drug Co.

CARNEGIE'S
NAME ON NOTESThey Are Found Among the Assets in Citizen's Bank.

CLEVELAND, Ohio, December 5.—Government officials practically admitted today that two notes bearing the signature of Andrew Carnegie were found among the assets of the Citizens' National Bank of Oberlin. According to the best obtainable information, these notes are for $250,000 and $500,000 respectively. The note for $250,000, it is said, bears the date of January 7, 1904, and reads as follows:

"One year after date I promise to pay C. L. Chadwick or order $250,000 with interest at 5 per cent.

"ANDREW CARNEGIE."

This note is endorsed on the back by C. L. Chadwick and is now understood to be in the possession of the Government officials. The note for $500,000 is said to be in the safety deposit box of Mr. Beckwith at Oberlin and the key is in his possession.

It is pointed out by prominent federal officials that the control of the Chadwick case is now in the hands of the Government, and that nothing can prevent the affair from being aired to the fullest extent in court.

District Attorney Sullivan this afternoon acknowledged that he recently had in his possession the note for $250,000 signed with the name of Andrew Carnegie and endorsed on the back by C. L. Chadwick.

"Now, remember," said Mr. Sullivan to the representative of the Associated Press, "I do not say that this note was signed by Andrew Carnegie, but simply that Carnegie's name was signed to it."

Mr. Sullivan declined to refer to the $500,000 note. By this distinction the District Attorney wished to impress upon his interviewer the fact that he did not know whether the signature was genuine or a forgery.

PLEADS GUILTY TO PERJURY CHARGE

Mathew Gates, a colored man charged with perjury, appeared before Judge Hall this morning to have his case set for trial and took occasion to change his plea of not guilty to guilty and the matter was continued one week in order to give his attorney opportunity to bring certain testimony before the court in extenuation of his offense, in the hope that the Judge can see his way to making the sentence light for the prisoner.

Gates married Helena Alexander, a young girl last September and in order to get a license swore that her age at that time was eighteen. He was afterwards arrested and charged with perjury, it transpiring that the girl was not eighteen, nor will she reach her majority for some time to come.

AGAIN.WANTS THE CONTRA COSTA DI-RECTORS TO MAKE ANOTHER ACCOUNTING.

Mrs. Jeanne D. Center, a small stockholder, who brought suit against the directors of the Contra Costa Water Company a few days ago to compel an accounting for $295,000 expended by President Dingee under a special authorization of the board, has filed another suit to compel a detailed accounting for $773,167.77 expended for the purchase of the Pinole creek water rights. She makes a general allegation of misuse of funds and asks that a receiver be appointed for the company.

In the present action Mrs. Center makes the directors of the Contra Costa Water Company, as well as the corporation itself, defendants, and adds to the list Wellington Gregg, president of the Bay Counties Land and Development Company, whom she charges with assisting in the transaction of which she complains. The full list of individual defendants in the new action is as follows: William J. Dingee, H. G. Stevenson, Charles C. Bemis, Thomas B. Finley, A. H. Winn, A. W. Rose, Edwin Schwab, Wellington Gregg, Jr.; also, as stated, the two companies named as corporations.

The complaint sets forth that the capital stock of the Contra Costa Water Company is 50,000 shares of a par value of $5,000,000, and adds that on February 3, 1903, Messrs. Dingee, Stevenson, Bemis, Finley, Winn and Rose were elected directors, together with Alvin Hayward, now deceased. On the same date these directors adopted a resolution providing for the purchase from Edward Schwab and the Bay Counties Land and Development Company of the Pinole tract, and for issuing in payment therefor to the seller 8,000 shares of the capital stock of the Contra Costa Water Company.

The resolution also provided that Bernard Fernandez be paid $73,167.77 for his share in the Pinole tract. In pursuance of this resolution the 8,000 shares of the paid-up stock were delivered, the par value of the same being $400,000, while the sum allowed Fernandez was also paid. The actual value of the land purchased, the plaintiff alleges, did not exceed $100,000. The stock was issued to Wellington Gregg, Jr., as trustee of the Bay Counties Land and Development Company, of which he was the president. He is also assistant cashier of the Crocker-Woolworth Bank.

CANNOT
PROPERTY.

Motion for a new trial in the case of George M. T. Ennis against Joseph Battencourt, was denied by Judge Ellsworth this morning. The action grew out of a gift Ennis made to Battencourt of property in Berkeley valued at about $2000 and which he afterwards wished to recover. He alleged fraud in order to get it back again. The case was tried before Judge Ellsworth and a judgment given for the defendant, Battencourt, whom it was decided had legal possession to the land. An attempt was made to get a retrial, but the case this morning was denied.

Ennis was the owner of property valued at about $8000. He was not friendly with his family, who lived in Tuolumne county. His wife having told him to leave her house owing to her father-in-law, he had taken in by the Battencourts, who took care of him and while living with them he inherited considerable money and property and bought the place where the Battencourts were living and gave it to them.

When Ennis' family heard of his inheritance, they were advised to get back the property he had given away. The court held, however, that he had given away the property knowing what he was about and could not hope to recover it through such allegations as he had made.

ELECTION DAY AT LOS ANGELES.

LOS ANGELES, December 5.—Los Angeles is holding her city election today for the selection of all municipal officers from the Mayor down.

Great activity is manifested by both sides and a heavy vote is being cast. Democrats are claiming the re-election of Mayor M. P. Snyder by 8000, but the Republicans are confident of the election of their candidate, Owen McAleer, by a similar plurality.

Boosevelt carried the city by over 15,000 but it is conceded that Snyder will entirely reduce this plurality. If not entirely overcome it, this is Snyder's fifth year for the office, having been successful at three previous elections and being defeated once.

Boosevelt's machines are in use in many of the precincts today and the result, unless it is very close, will be known shortly.

ARRESTED FOR CRUEL SPORT

The cases of Henry Rubino, aged 35, and his nephew, Salvador Rubino, accused of cruelty to animals, was continued this morning by Police Judge Smith until tomorrow morning to file complaint. The uncle and nephew are accused of putting two cats and a dog in a pen at Seventh and Linden streets, as a Sunday amusement and letting the beasts fight until death intervened.

The neighbors who were compelled to pay attention to the spectacle, called Policeman Scanlan and had both of the promoters of the sport arrested.

LEAPED TO DEATH

LOS ANGELES, December 5.—To escape arrest, an unknown man about 45 years old, leaped from the roof of the recently completed five-story Occidental Club building at 535 South Broadway, today and was dashed to death on the ground below. The man struck on his head, which was crushed into a shapeless mass, every bone in his body being broken by the frightful fall of 100 feet. Death was instantaneous. The man, who was evidently a tramp, had been caught sleeping in the building and placed under arrest for vagrancy. He escaped from the officers and ran to the roof and leaped off.

REPORT OF THE GRAND JURY.

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 5.—The Grand Jury today filed its final report, the majority severely criticizing several departments of the city government. The Mayor, ex. exam. commissioners, election commissioners and Board of Public Works are condemned while the assessor, tax collector, sheriff, city attorney and supervisors are commended.

HE FEARED TO DIE

NEW YORK, Dec. 5.—Pinned between two pliers at a pier at the foot of West Twenty-third street so tightly that the combined efforts of a score of firemen and policemen only released him after long and frantic efforts and with the rising tide threatening death by drowning, a man supposed to be George Fahy became a raving maniac and died today after having been removed from his perilous position.

Marcus Causee, a young man with more or less of a bad career, was this morning sentenced to ninety days in the city prison by Police Judge Samuels on a charge of vagrancy.

ARRESTED FOR FORGERY.

Henry D. Morris was arrested last Saturday night by Captain of Police Wilson on a charge of attempting to pass a forged check for $20 on Messrs. & Smith, Washington street merchants.

According to the story of the proprietors of the store, Morris came to them on Saturday night and asked to be signed by Harry Gordon, the insurance man. There was something suspicious about Morris' actions, and a check was refused. Communication with Mr. Gordon proved the check to be spurious and the man was taken into custody.

He was placed on the small book at the City Prison pending an investigation of his past record.

SON HAS FATHER ARRESTED.

Michael O'Connell was arrested last night on the complaint of his son, E. A. O'Connell, on a charge of disturbing the peace.

According to the story of the son the father came to the family home, from which he is barred, about three o'clock in the morning and tried to abuse his mother. This resulted in the arrest of the father.

There is a divorce pending between the husband and wife and the son says that his father often attempts to annoy his mother.

The elder O'Connell pleaded not guilty this morning before Police Judge Samuels and demanded a jury trial. His case went down for December 20.

SCENE
SENATECommittee is Appointed to Wait on the President.

WASHINGTON, December 5.—The Senate convened for its final session of the Fifty-eighth Congress promptly at noon today. The floral decorations were equal to those of any session in the history of the Senate. The largest single tribute was placed on the desk of Senator Tillman of South Carolina. It was a huge basket of American Beauty roses and chrysanthemums.

When Senator Fairbanks, the Vice-President-elect, entered the chamber he was greeted warmly by many of his colleagues. The visitors applauded his entry with cheers and hand-clapping. After prayer the roll was called and seventy-three Senators responded. Senator Allison made the usual formal motion that a committee be named to inform the President that the Senate was ready to receive any message he had to communicate. President pro tem Frye appointed Messrs. Allison and Cockrell for this duty.

On motion of Mr. Cockrell, 12 o'clock was fixed as the hour for meeting of the Senate.

The death of the late Senator Quay was announced by Mr. Penrose, who asked that a day be set aside that a public tribute might be made. He withheld the customary motion that the Senate adjourn out of respect to the memory of Senator Quay, in order to give Mr. Lodge of Massachusetts, an opportunity to announce the death of his late colleague, Mr. Hoar.

Mr. Lodge then presented a resolution on behalf of himself and Mr. Penrose asking that the Senate adjourn. The session was adjourned at 12:13 o'clock.

ENGINEERS BEGIN WORK.

City Engineer F. C. Turner and Engineers A. M. Hunt, and J. M. Howells this morning began the work of experting the lands of the Bay Cities Water Company. There are about eighty-five square miles of territory which the engineers will have to go over and ascertain what amount of water it will supply. There are two distinct water sheds which will have to be investigated.

All of the data which the Bay Cities Water Company has will be turned over to the board of three engineers to facilitate matters. The report of Engineer Desmond Fitzgerald will also be used in making the report.

Just when the report will be ready City Engineer Turner says he is unable to say but it is thought that within two or three weeks the results of the investigation of the board will be ready for submission to the City Council.

The mission is for the purpose of preparing the parishioners for the royal golden jubilee of the Immaculate Conception, which will be observed in all Catholic churches on December 8.

The Rev. Father McKay said the rosary and litany, preached the sermon, and gave the benediction of the Most Blessed Sacrament.

In the morning at 10:30 high mass was sung by Rev. Father Samson. Rev. Father J. B. McNulty, pastor of the parish, preached the sermon.

Masses were held at 5:30, 7 and 9 o'clock this morning, which will be held daily until the mission closes. At the last mass there will be preaching. In the evenings at 7:30 o'clock there will also be devotionals and a sermon.

SHORTAGE AT SAN
QUENTINLATE BERT SWAN'S BOOKS SAID
NOT TO BAL-ANCE.

SAN QUENTIN, December 4.—Since the death of Turnkey Bert Swan some six weeks ago, Prison Directors Wilkins and Felton have been going over the books in the turnkey's office and the news that the investigators have discovered a shortage was made public for the first time today. Just what the shortage will amount to when the examination is complete is hard to say, but up to the present between $100 and $200 has not been accounted for.

While the shortage which has been discovered to date is confined entirely to the stamp account, it is generally believed that further leakage will be discovered in the turnkey's office. It is rumored, upon good foundation, that a number of convicts have been the victims of many official borrowings which will never be repaid. The funds of all convicts are kept by the Warden's office subject to their order for legitimate expenses. On numerous occasions officials of the prison, it is said, have induced convicts to loan them money out of these funds and the sums borrowed have not been returned.

Just who is to blame for this peculiar state of affairs has not yet been brought to light, but the officials at the prison are inclined to refer to Swan as the man who succeeded in getting money from the convicts. One official at the prison is accredited with accusing Swan of having borrowed various sums of money from different convicts, and in one instance of having secured over $100 from one convict. If the charges made against Swan are true it is hardly possible that he could have carried on his operations unknown to the other officials of the prison.

Warden Tompkins refuses to throw any light upon the affair, and when asked about the shortage refused to affirm or deny its existence.

"Swan is dead, and he leaves a widow and children, and I am not going to talk about him," this is Warden Tompkins' statement about the whole affair.

AFTER RAILWAY

Mayor Olney this morning affixed his signature to the ordinance allowing the Oakland Traction Company to abandon franchises on portions of Second, Allice, Harrison, Madison, Eleventh streets, East Tenth, East Eleventh and East Twelfth streets, and on First, Sixth and Eighth avenues. Before Mayor Olney would sign the ordinance he requested the street railway corporation to give a guarantee that the portion of the streets torn up by the removal of the rails would be repaired.

The Traction Company gave a guarantee in the form of a letter to the Mayor by its secretary, Samuel J. Taylor, in which it was stated that the streets would be relaid to the satisfaction of the Board of Public Works and the Superintendent of Streets.

JOSEPH M'AVOY
LAID IN GRAVE

The funeral of the late Joseph M'Avoy was held this morning from the Church of the Immaculate Conception. There was a short service at the family home, 853 1/2 Franklin street before the funeral cortege moved to the church. The services were conducted by the Rev. Father King at the church and by the Rev. Father Cornwall at the cemetery. There were many friends of the deceased at the funeral to pay their last respects to the departed. There were also many floral offerings sent by friends and acquaintances.

The honorary pallbearers were the undertakers of Oakland, Alameda and Berkeley. Among those who officiated in this capacity were James McManus, James P. Taylor, Leitch and Henderson, Durgin and Jameson, H. Miller, C. H. Weaver and Robert Morgan.

The acting pallbearers were J. J. White, James Daly, Frank Pereria, M. Silva and A. Valadon.

MAY BE SUICIDE.

John H. Burston, who resides at 521 Thirteenth street, while out hunting yesterday on Grizzly Peak, found a letter signed by the name Malony. In it the writer threatened to commit suicide. The letter said that there was nothing to live for. The missive was turned over to the Chief of Police Hodgkins today, who believes the matter to be a hoax.

CHIEF COFFEY TAKES HIS CASE TO THE SUPREME COURT.

SAN FRANCISCO, December 5.—The petition of Mr. Coffey, Chief of Police of Sacramento, for a writ of prohibition restraining the Superior Court of Sacramento from removing him from office, was brought up before the Supreme Court today sitting in bank, but no further action was taken than the presentation by Coffey's counsel of a demurrer to the accusation of the Sacramento Grand Jury against him.

The respondent is Judge Hart of the Superior Court of Sacramento. Ten days were allowed the Sacramento court in which to file an answer, and the petitioners were given twenty days further to present a brief, and the respondent twenty days more to bring in his answer. For the present, proceedings in Sacramento are stopped by virtue of an alternative writ of prohibition issued from the Supreme Court against the Superior Court of Sacramento.

KILLED BY CAR IN SOUTH.

Clayton Griffith of Oakland Meets a Tragic Death.

LOS ANGELES, Dec. 5.—Reckless-pass resulted yesterday in the horrible mutilation and subsequent death of Clayton S. Griffith of Oakland, who was waiting for a car at the corner of Pico and Valencia streets to bring him to the center of the city.

Griffith was standing at the western intersection of the streets, when car 332 with Motorman R. Doan at the controller and Conductor W. H. Light in charge approached. The motorman refused to stop.

Grabbing the handle bars on the front end Griffith was jerked from his feet and hurled under the car. In his fall the step caught his trousers, and he was dragged on his face for a distance of six feet. His right arm fell under the wheels and was ground into pulp between the shoulder and elbow. His left cheek was torn open for its full length, and the back of his head was almost scalped.

When the car finally stopped it was necessary to back it up before the body could be withdrawn.

CHADWICK HAS MOTHER'S JEWELS

CLEVELAND Ohio, December 5.—Emil Chadwick, son of Mrs. C. L. Chadwick, arrived here to-day from New York. He appeared pale and careworn. Young Chadwick refused absolutely to discuss his mother's troubles. He simply stated that he had been instructed to keep silent and this he intended to do.

Chadwick carried a small valise which, according to New York authorities, carried his mother's jewelry. The young man refused to say whether or not the valuables were in the valise.

BAPTIST'S GOLDEN JUBILEE.

Services Held at the First Church Morning and Evening.

The celebration of the golden jubilee anniversary of the organization of the First Baptist Church in Oakland, began yesterday at the new home of the congregation on Twenty-first street and Telegraph avenue and will continue until Sunday evening December 11. The celebration began with a morning service at the church. This service was opened with the singing of Stainer's famous cantata, "The Crucifixion" by a chorus choir.

of fifty voices under the direction of Percy A. R. Dow. The solo parts were rendered by Scott Kent and Norman Pendleton, tenors, and Reginald Marwick and Walter Burkhalter, baritone.

At the conclusion of the cantata the pastor, the Rev. Homer J. Vosburgh, addressed the congregation, telling of the growth and work of the First Baptist Church since its establishment in 1854, when the congregation met for worship in a small building at Fifth and Jefferson streets. The pastor told of the early struggle to keep up the church, and spoke in glowing terms of the organizers, only one of whom has survived to witness the golden jubilee celebration. This is Mrs. Mary Potter, who is still a member of the church. "Immolation service and a reunion of the members followed the pastor's address and immediately afterwards one of the prettiest features of the jubilee celebration took place. This was the graduation of a class from the primary department of the Sunday school. The exercises were in charge of Mrs. John G. Hoyt, superintendent of the primary department assisted by Mrs. H. L. L. and John M. Davis. The exercises were held in the gymnasium of the boys' class and Miss Jennie Egan, teacher of the girls' class. FUNERAL OF LATE ZACH T. GILPIN

The funeral of Zachary T. Gilpin, former City Treasurer of Oakland, who died at Colfax from pulmonary trouble, was held yesterday morning at eleven o'clock from the residence of E. W. Owen, his brother-in-law, 1878 Webster street. Many friends of the late official attended the services which were conducted by the Rev. J. K. McLean, president of the Pacific Theological Seminary of Berkeley. The exercises were in charge of the Masonic Quartet, under the direction of Alfred Wilkie. The pallbearers were Dr. L. S. Burdard, J. W. McClellens, Charles S. Cole, George Cummings, David E. Bortree and Fred L. Button. The remains were incinerated at the Oakland Crematory.

TAINTED BLOOD

Columbus, Ohio, May 19, 1903. Some four years ago I was suffering from impure blood and a general run-down condition of the system. I had no appetite, was losing flesh, and had an all-gone tired feeling that made me miserable. I began the use of S. S. S. and after taking seven or eight bottles my skin was cleared of all eruptions and took on a ruddy, healthy glow that assured me that my blood had been restored to its normal, healthy condition. My appetite was restored, and as I could eat anything put before me, and as I regained my appetite I increased in weight, and that "tired feeling" which worried me so much disappeared, and I was once again my old self. I heartily recommend S. S. S. as the best blood purifier and tonic made, and strongly advise its use to all those in need of such medicine. Victor S. Strassman, Cor. Bartman and Washington Aves.

Wheeling, W. V., May 28, 1903. My system was run down and my joints ached and pained me considerably. I had used S. S. S. before and knew what it was, so I purchased a bottle of it and had taken several bottles and the aches and pains are gone, my blood has been cleared and my general health built up. I can testify to it as a blood purifier and tonic. 533 Market St. JOHN C. STIM.

OAKLAND TRIBUNE

Secretary Taft's Successful Mission.

Secretary Taft has adjusted the Panama dispute with the same skill, address and diplomatic tact that he displayed in effecting a settlement of embarrassing problem the Government has had to confront since the acquisition of the islands. While not surrendering any of its essential rights or prerogatives in Panama, it has agreed to a construction of the various clauses of the canal treaty that removes all misunderstanding and concedes to the Government of Panama all sovereign rights and prerogatives not essential to the free control by the United States of the canal zone and the complete maintenance of its authority over the canal and its approaches. Mr. Taft approached his delicate task by convincing the Panamanian government of the entire good faith and kindly intention of the Washington Government, and then he took up the matters in dispute and dealt with them on the principle that all rights not specially delegated to the United States or essential to its control over the canal zone remained with Panama. It was this deference to a weak and defenseless power coupled with entire candor and a strict regard for the national dignity of the Republic of Panama that insured such a prompt and satisfactory end to Secretary Taft's mission. In getting rid of an annoying complication by an adjustment on lines so clearly honorable to both sides the United States have avoided future complications that might possibly arise with other powers in case the questions in dispute were left undetermined. Additional respect will now be felt for Secretary Taft who has demonstrated himself to be as versatile as he is able. It is rare to find a man who combines within himself the talents of a great jurist, a successful administrator and a skillful diplomatist, but Secretary Taft shines conspicuously in all capacities.

So far as the Chadwick matter is concerned, the trouble is not to find the woman in the case, but to find the man who is alleged to have forged Andrew Carnegie's name to a $500,000 note. Mr. Carnegie says Mrs. Chadwick is no connection of his and that he has had no acquaintance or dealings with her, yet Mr. Carnegie's nephew and attorneys have been having conferences with her. Although the officers have been unable to find the mythical wealth and securities of the woman, her attorneys confidently assert that all claims against her will be paid. Some mysterious agency lies behind Mrs. Chadwick, for it is evident the financiers who have been dealing with her are not entirely frank in their statements regarding the woman and the business transactions they had with her. She is either a most accomplished confidence operator or she has connections of some sort that have given her a standing with financial men.

Now that Congress is again in session, the member who undertakes to state what the Wogglebug has to say will come in crushing contact with Uncle Joe Cannon's mallet. It makes Uncle Joe mighty impatient to hear talk coming through a hat.

Says the Milwaukee Sentinel: "It looks as if pro-Japanese sentiment in this country would not stand the strain of an influx of Japanese cheap labor." The Sentinel is right. We wish the Japanese well in their own country, but we don't want too many of them in our own. The presence of the Japanese in any great numbers serves to aggravate race problems that are already vexing enough. The Japanese add a discordant element to our social and industrial life.

The report that some Chicago men got lost on Pike's Peak must be a canard. With Chicago men around the peak might have got lost, but no well-informed person will believe a Chicago man ever failed to know where he was at.

The man who picked General Stoessel for the "fall guy" is no more able to pick a winner than Tom Taggart.

It is stated that Tom Taggart has been consulting with a number of leading Democrats at French Lick Springs. Very likely they told each other's fortunes in the cards.

Borrowing Money From Convicts.

If it be true, as reported, that subordinate officers and guards at San Quentin have been in the habit of borrowing money from convicts the practice ought to be summarily stopped. Obligations of this character ought never to be created between convicts and those charged with their custody and the maintenance of prison regulations. It is opposed to every principle of good order and discipline, for it leads to favoritism and corruption as certainly as day follows night. All traffic between officers and guards and convicts is to be discontinued and viewed with suspicion, for the man who receives financial favors from another should be willing to reciprocate—otherwise he proves himself an ingrate. Special favors extended to convicts other than those granted as a reward for good conduct and exemplary performance of properly assigned tasks must obviously be at the expense of infringement of prison regulations and the disciplinary rules which should govern penal administration. We do not know how much truth there is in the reports coming from San Quentin, and we are unwilling to give too ready credence to unverified rumors of misconduct on the part of the officials there—especially as they are continually under the fire of malicious gossip circulated by discharged prisoners—but there is enough verisimilitude in the stories to warrant the Prison Directors in looking into the matter and insisting upon a rule of conduct less reprehensible and more in accordance with discipline. The officer or guard who borrows money from a convict should be promptly discharged. He is manifestly unfit for his position, for he is either taking advantage of the situation and credulity of the lender or he is meditating granting privileges or the return of favors which if not unlawful are contrary to both the letter and spirit of the prison regulations.

REWARD THE WORKER.

It is with a great deal of pleasure that the News learns of the announcement that Friend W. Richardson publisher of the Berkeley Daily Gazette, is a candidate for the appointment of postmaster of the College City.

In addition to the fact that it is too seldom that newspaper men are rewarded for the untiring and valued assistance rendered to the causes they advocate, Mr. Richardson has given Berkeley one of the best and most up-to-date newspapers in the State, and he has become one of the representative men in affairs, political and social, in the University town.

The policy inaugurated by President Roosevelt to appoint to the postmasterships only men who have proven their worth in other positions in life should be one of the strongest arguments in favor of Mr. Richardson.

The editor of the Gazette deserves the support of the people of Berkeley and we believe that should he be selected he will give our sister city a clean, honest and efficient postal service.—Vallejo Morning News.

THE HOUSE MAJORITY.

According to the official returns the Republican majority in the House of Representatives of the Fifty-ninth Congress will be 116. In the House elected in 1890, during Harrison's administration, the Democrats had a majority of 140 over Republicans and Populists, there being eight of the latter. Four years later, in the revulsion from the landslide which marked Cleveland's second election, the Republicans had a majority of 135 over Democrats and Populists.

In actual numbers, then, the present Republican majority has twice been exceeded, and on the basis of percentage of predominance the Republican control of the lower house during several Congresses just after the Civil War was even more emphatic than it was in 1894. But the party's numerical strength in the coming Congress, leaving out of consideration the probability of its increase through contacts, is more than sufficiently great to warrant a warning.

Big Congressional majorities are matters for jubilation when the election returns come in; they are often matters of party mortification when the work of legislation is under way.

At first they are more than likely to breed an arrogant exercise of power—a ruthless rushing to extremes, harmful to the party thus dominant, and what is of far more importance, to the country. The sense of individual responsibility seems to increase or decrease as the majority is small or large, and, frequently, when the majority is very large, it disappears.

Later on there is sure to develop an indifference in the matter of attendance and a forgetfulness of party pledges. These may be said to be more or less characteristic evils of every Congress, but there is no doubt that they are accentuated by the consciousness of a numerically impotent opposition.

Members of the majority in the Fifty-ninth Congress should keep these facts in memory. There is peculiar need that the legislative branch of the government, during the near future, be alive to upholding the hands and reinforcing the aims of the Executive. The tariff, immigration, the trusts, internal improvements, Chinese exclusion, all present problems which demand wise solution.

The people have enthusiastically endorsed the notes of the Republican party. It behooves Congress to do its part toward preventing those notes from going to protest.—Philadelphia North American.

HARVESTING COFFEE BERRIES.

Early in the spring the coffee tree breaks forth in a mass of bloom, but the complete covering of delicate white blossoms disappears in a very few days. A period of four or five months elapses before the next period. Then, as the bean is firmly attached to the branch and the region is not subject to heavy storms, the crops are not depleted by wind-falls, the trees showing almost as complete a covering of fruit as of blossoms. The picking is done by a large force of peasants, each with basket slung over his shoulders, in a short time. The fruit is hauled in lumbering ox-carts of medieval pattern to the patios or drying yards. The latter are literally huge cement floors, with a form admirable tennis courts when not being put to their legitimate use, and on a large plantation will cover several acres.

Here the berries are spread out in a layer a few inches deep and then hoed up into rows, being continually turned, so as to present all the fruit to the sun. By a new method the coffee is dried by a machine which resembles a huge roaster and acts in much the same manner. The former cherrylike fruit has now become a tough, black and wrinkled nondescript, resembling pebbles as much as anything and with bobbles it is more or less mixed from here it is shoved into the large fermenting tanks, where it is covered with water and allowed to remain some time, being continually stirred and having the extremely malodorous water drawn off at intervals. From this process it emerges completely cleansed of the large amount of soft pulp which has hitherto covered it, but the beans are still held fast to faces by a thin and very strong parchment-like covering which can only be removed economically by machinery. This is accomplished by a huller, which breaks the beans apart and blows off the covering. The impurities, such as black and worthless beans, stones and similar rubbish, are then picked out by hand and the coffee is bagged and ready for shipment. The roasting and grinding are always done where the coffee is to be used.

IN THE FIELD OF LITERATURE.

SOME NEW BOOKS JUST ISSUED FROM THE EASTERN PRESS.

Four clever stories of college life are embodied in a volume by Josephine Daskam under the title of "Her Finance". The atmosphere of the university has been infused into these charming tales with a wonderful degree and they sparkle with wit of the most delightful sort. Above all the quality of genuine womanhood has been imparted to the character in a way that the author is master of—they are not mere names upon paper, these women and girls of whom she tells, neither are they artificial caricatures, but living, breathing beings, full of spirit, perhaps, but so real that we recognize in them the prototypes of women we have known.

The title story is possibly the best of the lot. The love story it tells is as sweet and pure as the breeze of a spring morning and there is an indelible charm about it which defies expression. The illustrations by Elizabeth Halpin Green add much to the interest of the text. Published by Henry Altemus Co., Philadelphia.

"THE NEW PHILOSOPHY."
A little volume by Arthur Crane, published by the author for complimentary distribution, is "The New Philosophy." As Mr. Crane states in his preface "Truth is not truth, unless it is truth to you. Inspiration is only a thought in the mind of a man. If you can read self-consciousness long enough to receive a message, you may be able to read your message out of this book, otherwise this book will be worthless to you." The manner in which the mental condition may be controlled or regulated by means of a philosophical understanding of the unwritten laws of life—the power which may be exercised upon the mind by an observance of the laws of philosophy—forms the basis of this new philosophy. Published by Arthur Crane, room 417 No. 129 Third Street, San Francisco.

"FOUR AMERICAN INDIANS."
A book for young Americans by E. L. Whitney and Frances M. Perry. The four American Indians who are the story of King Philip, ruler of the Wampanoags, of Pontiac, of Tecumseh and Osoqui. Written in simple language, yet sufficiently advanced to interest even older readers. This volume will form a valuable acquisition to every school library. The lives of these four American Indians are not only of interest as well as instructive to the youthful reader. Published by the American Book Co., New York. Illustrated.

"COMMERCIAL LAW."
In "Commercial Law," Dr. C. G. Gano, L. L. M., assisted by Samuel Williams, has aimed to select from the extensive field of the law those fundamental principles, a knowledge of which the business man will find of great value to him, and which the teacher of Commercial Law will regard most useful to his classes. The various legal forms applicable to commercial affairs are divided in separate chapters, the whole being supplemented by a copious glossary embracing all the legal phrases in common use. Published by American Book Co., New York.

"DOES YOUR SCALP ITCH?"
Are Your Hairs Dropping One by One?

If your scalp itches you are doubtless suffering from dandruff. The dandruff germ is digging up your scalp in little flakes, called dandruff, and sapping the life of the hair bulb. No hair preparation that is a mere hair stimulant and tonic will cure dandruff, because it won't kill the germ that causes the trouble. Newbro's Herpicide is the latest scientific discovery, and it will kill the dandruff germ. Destroy the cause and you remove the effect, and they believe to be of long relief in the treatment of German dandruff. While avoiding certain undesirable features, they have aimed to produce a LOCAL LODGE OF ELKS HOLDS SERVICES.

Memorial Exercises at the First Congregational Church Are Largely Attended.

The members of Oakland Lodge No. 171, Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks held memorial services in the First Congregational Church at 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon for their departed brother.

A profusion of white chrysanthemums, carnations and violets with a background of magnolia boughs were used in decorating the pulpit. The church was filled to the doors with the members and their families and friends. The officers of the lodge wore purple violets and each member of the order wore a boutonniere of violets.

Exalted Ruler James McManis, who was in the chair, gave the opening address to the officers to which they responded cheerily.

Brother Fletcher A. Cutler delivered the oration, speaking with feeling of the death of a brother who had been a member of the lodge since 1891. In part he said:

"Brothers, Friends! It has been the custom in all ages and among all people to preserve and honor the memory of the dead. Elks all over the world set apart this day in which to commemorate those whose path has been divided from those of earth. It has been said that we meet to have a good time. We do. But in doing so we never transgress the moral or the written law. If we can replace gloom with brightness, if we can lift a burden from weary shoulders, if we can bring a smile today to a cheek that yesterday was sad, we have done our duty. Fraternal orders bringing together so many of different creeds are a harbinger of peace on earth, good will to men. That is what we strive to do."

"Several of our brothers have been called recently to their eternal home. They were good, true men, and that is saying more than would stored urn or costly monument."

The Rev. Charles M. of Sacramento who took the place of Brother Elk George W. Frick, in delivering the eulogy, said in part:

"Brothers! I bear from our lodge of Sacramento greetings of sympathy. When the French Pere, the most eloquent of preachers rose to deliver the eulogy on the death of Louis XIV, he said:

kept silent for a moment, impressed with the surroundings. Then, raising his hands to heaven, he said: "My brothers, God only is great! Oh words of inspiration and truth, God only is great! Only the words of the Bible can tell us the truth. To pass on to the king's death comes at last with a little dart pierces the walls of flesh and man's work is done. All corrodes but brotherly love, fidelity and high purpose. They shine as the stars forever."

"Let us then, my brothers, on this day of memory, ponder on the virtue of our brothers. Blessed are the names we call and the memories we follow. Let us write their faults upon the same, their virtues upon the tablets of our hearts."

"We have heard of the power of God, but only to the power of God work in, then, my brothers, knowing that you are sowing seeds that will be waited higher and higher and find root where God pleases."

There were no frivolous pastimes, such as clap net and clasp out, pastime and drop the handkerchief. Instead the children amused each other with feats of strength and exhibitions of muscular skill. There were "Jai Jitsu babies" and "natural system babies."

OFFICERS SENT TO PRISON.

Election Officials Sentenced For Allowing "Repeating."

DENVER, December 5.—Frank J. Kratke, the city license inspector; Joseph Ray, Edward O'Malia and Charles Kofsky were to-day adjudged guilty of contempt by the State Supreme Court and were sentenced to jail.

The sentences are as follows: Kratke, one year imprisonment and $1000 fine and costs; Ray and O'Malia, six months imprisonment and $500 fine and costs each; Kofsky, three months imprisonment and $250 fine and costs. These men were election officials in Precinct 8 of Ward 5 at the late election and were accused of disregarding the court's injunctive order. The principal charge against them was that they permitted repeating. Carl Wilson, election clerk in the same precinct, was found not guilty of contempt.

The court denied an application for release of the convicted men on bail pending an appeal to the Federal Court.

QUARREL, PISTOL, POISON.

Wife and Her Lodger Threaten Suicide; Husband Shot.

During a quarrel over their two children, Mrs. P. K. Webster, living at 2540 Telegraph avenue, Saturday evening at her home, took a small pistol and pointing the weapon toward her temple, declared that she would kill herself. Her husband, meanwhile, struggled with her for the possession of the weapon, which was discharged, the bullet inflicting a wound in his leg. Then, several hours later, Adam Baker, a young man who had been lodging in Mrs. Webster's house, resenting the insinuations that he had been the cause of the domestic troubles of the Websters, drank a quantity of poison. He took such a large dose, however, that the drug did nothing more than cause him to become sick.

Both Webster and Baker were treated at the Receiving Hospital. No arrests were made.

About two months ago, Mr. and Mrs. Webster had some domestic trouble and the husband left the family residence only to return last Saturday night to make arrangements to place their two children in some institution. It was during the discussion as to where the children should be placed that Mrs. Webster seized the pistol, threatened suicide and then in the struggle for its possession caused the shooting of her husband.

After the slight wound received by Webster had been treated at the Receiving Hospital and the couple had returned to Mrs. Webster's home, young Baker, learning that his name had been mentioned during the family drama, rushed to the front porch saying: "If I am the cause of all this, I will end it all."

Then he drank from a large bottle which he had in his hand. It was about a quart of poison. He was taken to the hospital and a large quantity of the drug was taken in such a large quantity that only an illness of the stomach resulted.

The police investigated the affair, but as Webster refused to charge his wife with any offense, no arrests were made.

VOLUNTEER CHORUS GIRLS.

(From T. P.'s Weekly.)

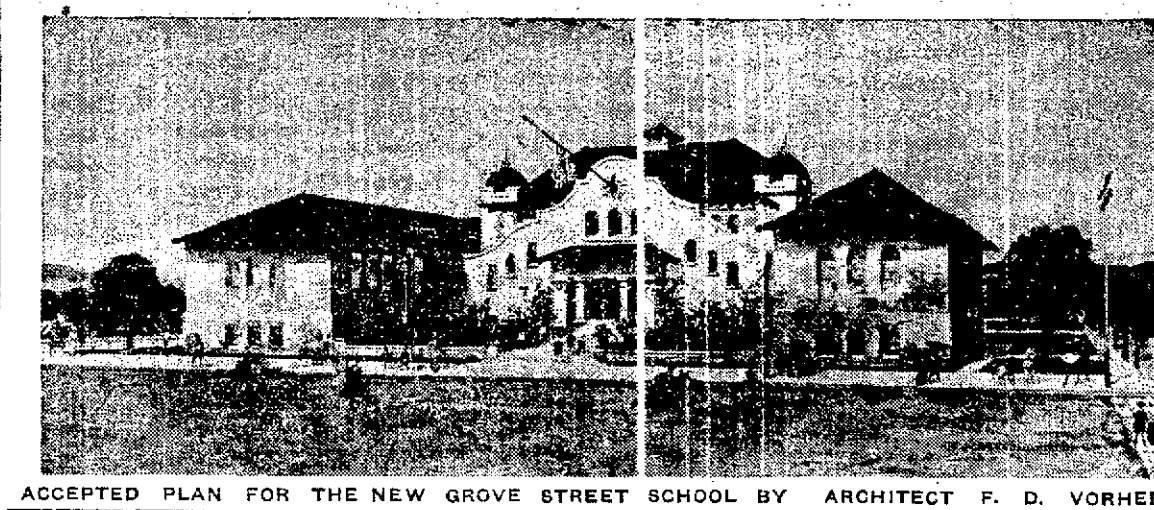

"What chance have I," said a girl in a chorus, "against that?" She said, unconsciously glanced down at her shabby shoes and a well worn skirt. She had been "out" for a couple of months. Her savings were all gone, and though she did not admit it, a little observation would tell that she and hunger were not on unfamiliar terms.

Certainly the most sanguine of mortals would not back her in a contest for employment against the girl she had pointed to. "That" girl, however, had a different story. She had dress, pocket money and a comfortable home from an indulgent father. She was asked to sing in a chorus, an advertisement of prosperity for any touring company.

She wondered that she and others like her were every day driving trained and hard-working actresses deeper and deeper into the slough of poverty and despair.

RESCUING THE EYE.

Optimists believe that Dr. Stephen Smith, surgeon to the eye department of Battersea Park Hospital, Nottingham, England, has discovered a new treatment of the eye which will practically abolish spectacles. It is styled "manipulation of the eye" and is gentle and gradual, occupying a few minutes daily, causing no pain and having no injurious effect on the eye. Some patients are cured in a week, and in all cases improvement is rapid. Thirty patients who had been obliged to wear spectacles for a long time have been treated by Dr. Smith, and with a single exception, all have discarded their glasses and are now free from either long or short distances, as well as people who have never needed assistance. The cause of myopia, hypermetropia and astigmatism are said to be permanent.—New York Press.
